Customer Reviews

I have known this mid-20th century hymnal since shortly after it was published and have used it extensively over the years. However, I had misplaced my copy and needed to have it for use in a particular context. It is a solid hymnal of classic and gospel hymns edited by one of the giants of 20th century church music and hymn collections, Don Hustad.

This was exactly what I was looking for, and it arrived in the condition described, in a timely manner. All aspects of the transaction more than met my expectations.

In this day of "everything digital," it's a joy to hold something in one's hand that is a reminder of time-honored values
