Customer Reviews

The cover of the book is very sturdy and well done., The pictures are colorful and descriptive, and the authors do a wonderful job of telling about Jesus's life from the beginning to the end. Saint Benedict Press always does a fine job! This is a wonderful book for any child receiving their First Holy Communion

The pictures and illustrations were very well done. Very well written so children can understand what they are reading. It was my grandson's 1st Communion but the other grandchildren wanted one also. I will know what to get them for their 1st Communion.

This is perfect for my little friend. His siblings are taking turns reading it to him, so they get it, too. The stories are written in a way that makes sense to the whole family.

The book is beautiful but mostly pictures. I was expecting more of the written word. It does make a nice keepsake.

My nephew and his parents really appreciated this gift for his First Holy Communion. The extra pages relating to the sacrament are beautifully written.
